

LEARN WHY WORKERS' RIGHTS ARE IMPORTANT

Come hear national AFL-CIO
Secretary-Treasurer, Liz Shuler!

March 4-5 • Raleigh • Durham • Chapel Hill

Raleigh

3/4

12:30p

N.C. Policy Watch Crucial Conversation:

"Why unions are GOOD for BUSINESS and 'Right-to-Work' Laws aren't"

Where: Junior League of Raleigh, Community Room
711 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, NC 27605

Cost: $10 includes lunch. Limited space. RSVP required. Contact Rob Schofield at 919-861-2065 or rob@ncpolicywatch.com.

Duke

3/4

5:00p

C.L.A.S.S. Talk: "UNION YES! Why workers' rights are good public policy"

Where: Duke (west), Sanford School of Public Policy, Rhodes Room
Corner of Towerview Rd + Science Dr (park at 120 Science Dr)

Sponsor: Center for the Study of Class, Labor, and Social Sustainability at Duke. Contact class-center@duke.edu or visit <http://sites.duke.edu/class/> for more information.

UNC

3/5

noon

"The War on working people in NC and beyond: Why labor law matters"

Where: UNC Law School, Room 5042
160 Ridge Rd, Chapel Hill, NC 27514

Sponsor: UNC Center on Poverty, Work, and Opportunity;
Lunch will be provided!