

March on Reynolds Shareholders Meeting

May 9, 2013

10:00am

Winston Salem, NC

Sub minimum wages. Child labor.
Heat stroke.
Pesticide Exposure.
Uninhabitable housing.
Green tobacco sickness.
Lack of water. No breaks.
Fatalities.

Reynolds, talk is cheap.
End the abuse.

March with us and demand justice for tobacco farmworkers on May 9.

It's our time to go face to face with Reynolds executives and tell them we demand justice.

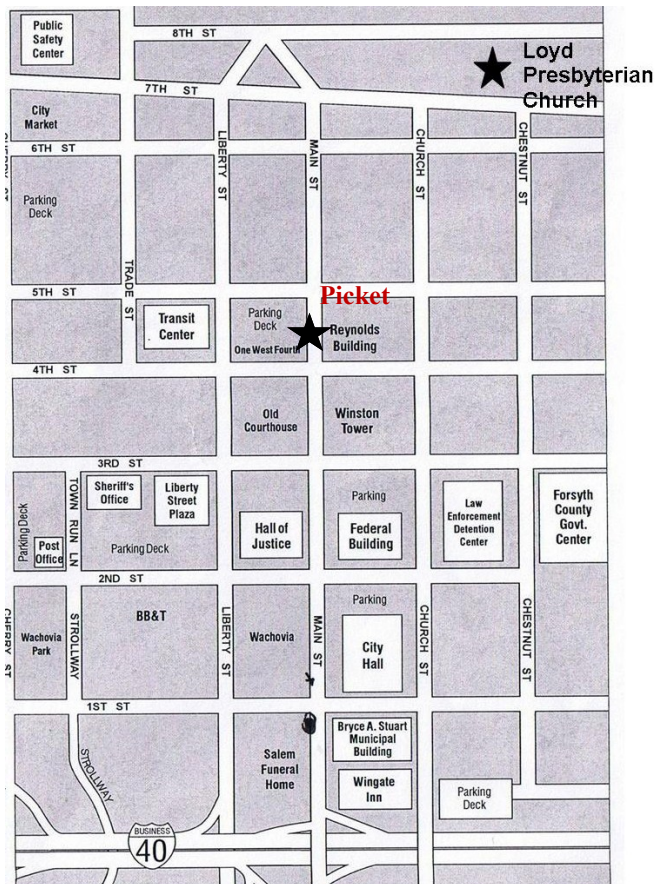

Join us in Winston Salem on May 9 as we rally and march for justice for tobacco farmworkers! For over 5 years FLOC has asked Reynolds American to meet with the farmworkers who harvest their tobacco to discuss how to put an end to the human rights abuses occurring in NC tobacco fields. Last year, Reynolds finally agreed to come to the table to talk with FLOC, but they have yet to sign an agreement guaranteeing the right to organize and collectively bargain for all farmworkers in their supply chain.

Did you know?

⇒ Reynolds made nearly 1.3 billion dollars last year in profits while most farmworkers live in poverty. Last year, Reynolds CEO Daniel Delen made 8.6 million dollars.

⇒ Reynolds is also a corporate sponsor of ALEC, a corporate lobbying group that pushes anti-immigrant and anti-worker legislation, and Reynolds exec David Powers sits on ALEC's Private Enterprise Board.

Tell Reynolds it's time to take responsibility for its actions and its supply chain.

9:30am Meet at Lloyd Presbyterian Church

748 N Chestnut St., Winston Salem, NC 27101

Free parking is available at Lloyd, or pay lots are available downtown. Nearest lot to Reynolds is across from the front entrance on Main St. between 4th and 5th.

10:00 Demonstration at Reynolds Headquarters

401 N Main St, Winston-Salem, NC 27101

11:00 March through downtown Winston Salem, ending back at Lloyd Presbyterian for a rally and lunch at noon.

For more information, contact flocnc@floc.com or 919-731-4433

Get Involved!

Be a part of the action inside the meeting. We will be inside the meeting asking questions and talking face to face with Reynolds. If you are interested in going into the meeting as a proxy for one of our shareholders, email flocnc@floc.com

Volunteer at the event. A list of volunteer roles and an online sign up sheet are available at www.floc.com, or email us at flocnc@floc.com for more info.

Spread the word. Share this with your family and friends and ask them to join you on May 9!