KNOW YOUR VOTING RIGHTS

You can vote in the March 15th primary with or without an ID. Here's what else you need to know.

1. You will have to show a photo ID to cast a regular ballot inside your polling place. If you don't have one, ask to cast a provisional ballot. For more info about exceptions and how to get an ID, visit www.gotidnc.com.
2. Register at your current address by Feb. 19 or you can't vote. Same-day registration during early voting is no longer allowed.
3. Vote early March 3-12. Visit www.ncvoter.org for locations.
4. Vote by mail without a photo ID. Learn how to request an absentee ballot at bit.ly/ncabsentee.
5. You must vote in your assigned precinct on Election Day. Find your polling place at bit.ly/ncvoters.
6. Call 1-888-OUR-VOTE to ask questions or report problems with voting.
