

North Carolina Needs Judges Who Care about Working Families

We need judges who will enforce laws important to workers

Working families need judges who will enforce laws important to them. The Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals preside over cases involving workers' compensation, unemployment and state wage and hour laws. After researching each judicial candidate, the NC State AFL-CIO endorses the following candidates:

NC Supreme Court

Sam Ervin, IV

(Newby seat)

NC Court of Appeals

Judge Linda McGee

(McGee seat)

Judge Cressie Thigpen

(Thigpen seat)

Judge Wanda Bryant

(Bryant seat)

Ballot Reminder:

Judicial Races are Non-Partisan!

If you vote a straight-party ticket when you go to the polls, you still have to vote for each judicial candidate.

When marking your ballots, be sure to make a selection for each of our endorsed statewide judicial candidates.

Pick Judges for Workers

Vote November 6

Paid for by NC State AFL-CIO and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

LABOR
2012