Bring a pot & spoon!

#May14NC

What: Second Pots & Spoons Protest of our out-of-control legislature

When: Wednesday, May 14 at 10 A.M.

Where: Bicentennial Mall (across from the legislative building)
16 W. Jones St., Raleigh, NC

Why: Let's welcome state lawmakers back to Raleigh with a sound they can't ignore!

Define: cacerolazo (n.) - a form of popular protest, especially in Latin America, which consists of a group of people creating noise by banging pots, pans, and other utensils in order to call for attention.

Bring an empty pot and spoon (and a friend) this May 14th and join our cacerolazo, only the second-of-its-kind protest of our out-of-control state legislature in North Carolina!

Sound off for workers' rights! Sound off for democracy, for equality, for public education, for the environment!

When our legislature reconvenes, let us drown out the corporate lobbyists and right-wing ideologues with a noise only We the People can muster!

We're moving Forward Together on May 14th. Are you in?
