Date: Monday, March 21, 2016

The North Carolina State AFL-CIO Carolina Labor School will be held at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington on June 26 - July 1, 2016.

A highlight of the school will be instructors from the Labor Education Program at the University of Arkansas-Little Rock, who provide practical leadership training for your local union officers and shop stewards. Mike Okun and his friends Mr. and Ms. Pee Wee will provide participants with an understanding of the most important and useful aspects of state labor law. We will also have an experienced Workers' Compensation lawyer to explain its most important components.

Participants should start getting in shape for our annual Game Day & Picnic, which will be held Wednesday afternoon.

Tuition & Fees – students can stay on campus or they may commute to campus every day; in either case, tuition & fees cover instruction, materials, admission to Game Day & Picnic, and all meals for on-campus students and lunch daily for commuters.

On Campus: $385 tuition & fees per student; includes lodging, three meals a day.
Commuters: $285 tuition & fees per student; breakfast & dinner are not included.
Young Worker Discount: Take 20% off tuition & fees for registered students age 28 and younger!

Key Deposit – There is an additional $5 key deposit (for those staying on-campus), which will be refunded when the key is returned at checkout on Friday, July 1st. Participants will be housed in a modern dormitory in 4-bedroom suites - each having a kitchenette (microwave, range/oven, full-size fridge, and sink); living/dining area; bathrooms, vanities, showers, and private bedrooms with twin-size beds.

Housing – On campus housing is not comparable to a hotel, so if you are used to hotel stays, you may prefer to stay off campus.
