#May16NC

What: Pots & Spoons Protest of our Out-of-Control legislature

When: Wednesday, May 16 at 10 A.M.

Where: Bicentennial Mall (across from the legislative building)
16 W. Jones St., Raleigh, NC

Why: Let's welcome state lawmakers back to Raleigh with a sound they can't ignore.

Define: cacerolazo (n.) - a form of popular protest practiced in certain Spanish-speaking countries - in particular Argentina and Chile - which consists of a group of people creating noise by banging pots, pans, and other utensils in order to call for attention.

Bring an empty pot and spoon (and a friend) this May 16th and join our cacerolazo, the first-of-its-kind protest of our out-of-control state legislature in North Carolina!

As corporate lobbyists and the right-wing crazy train line up to be heard when our legislature reconvenes, let us drown them out with a noise only We the People can muster! We will bang our empty pots non-stop for 15 minutes.

It's all part of the 99% Spring. Are you in?
