

These are the only candidates for statewide office who sought and received the endorsement of organized working people.

Working Families Need North Carolina's Leaders to Fight for Us

Governor

Walter Dalton

Champion for Working Families

- ✓ Created the Home Protection Program that helps laid-off workers protect their homes from foreclosure
- ✓ Fought for training programs to help unemployed workers gain new skills and a better chance at employment
- ✓ Committed to the creation of good jobs throughout the state
- ✓ Voted to lower the property tax for seniors by increasing the homestead exemption

Lt. Governor

Linda Coleman

Fellow Union Member and Advocate for Workers

- ✓ Led the fight for fairness for state employees
- ✓ Committed to increasing jobs and services for our veterans
- ✓ Fought to reduce class size, invest in public education, and oppose efforts to privatize our school system
- ✓ Focused on job training opportunities that will allow workers to move into better jobs

Council of State

Elaine Marshall
Secretary of State

Beth Wood
Auditor

Wayne Goodwin
Insurance Commissioner

June Atkinson
Superintendent of

Janet Cowell
Treasurer

John Brooks
Labor Commissioner

Roy Cooper
Attorney General

Public Instruction

Pick Leaders for Workers

Vote November 6

LABOR
2012

Paid for by the North Carolina State AFL-CIO, 919-833-6678