

Come Join Us for the 2013 Spring Session!

Labor History Comes Alive!

Six Sundays, from April 21 -- May 26, 2013

3:00 - 4:30 pm

Communications Workers of America (CWA) Union Hall

129 Industrial Avenue, Greensboro, N.C. 27406

(Off South Elm-Eugene Street)

► Class Topic --

“In the Current Crisis - The U.S. Labor Movement Fights Back!”

The six week class will be a series of presentations and discussions, some with guest presenters, including the:

- Ongoing struggle of the Farm Labor Organizing Committee (FLOC) against RJR Tobacco Company, with historical context
- Walmart Workers Rising Up
- 2011/2012 Battle for Wisconsin and the 2012 Chicago Teachers Strike
- Urgent Fight to Save the Public Postal Service
- Current United Parcel Service contract struggle & the 1997 Teamsters Strike
- Other important labor battles - from the NUHW to Power on the Docks

Teachers: Richard Koritz -- longtime labor activist, Executive Board member of N.C. Letter Carriers Union (NALC/AFL-CIO), Board Member of the International Civil Rights Museum and Labor Educator. Chris Cecil, a young active Teamster member and Shop Steward will be assisting.

Registration Form:

Yes, I want to participate in the Labor History Class!

Name _____

Address _____ City _____

Phone _____ email _____ Union, if any _____ (Donation: $20 for individual. Union or Group Rate: 3 for $50.00, 6 for $75.00. Unemployed: $5.00.

Low-wage workers & Retirees: $10.00. Study materials included. Checks payable to Triad Jobs With Justice)

Sponsored by N.C. Triad Jobs With Justice

Jobs with Justice is a Labor-Community Coalition. Affiliated Unions: National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) Branch 630 (Greensboro), CWA 3607 (Greensboro), United Auto Workers (UAW) 5287 (High Point), American Federation of Teachers (AFT Guilford County), N.C. Ironworkers, Teamsters Local 391, NALC Branch 461 (Winston-Salem), NALC Branch 936 (High Point). Affiliated Community Organizations: N.C. Occupational Safety & Health, N.C. Labor Against the War, Ivorian Association, Postal Customers & Workers United to Save the Public Postal Service.

-Labor Donated -