

Greensboro Standing with Women and Families Forum

Organizing for Power in the Gender Gap

March 5, 2016

Sponsored by:

Action NC, Beloved Community Center, Ecumenical Poverty Initiative, NC State AFL-CIO, NC Black Women's Roundtable, Working America, Women's Equality Center

The Women's Equality Center and its state partners invite you to the Greensboro Standing with Women and Families Forum. This forum brings together women of faith, organizations and stakeholders who organize, represent or advocate for women and their families. Together, we'll strategize about increasing our collective power in order to advance fairness, opportunity and self-determination for all women.

Our forum will focus on strategies to...

Increase our own commitment to gender equality for women within organizations and with our allies.

Expand relationships across movements, organizations so that we increase our power by working together on a common agenda and strategy.

Develop a shared strategy across organizations based on an integrated race, religion, class and gender analysis

MARK YOUR CALENDAR FOR THIS ONE-OF-A-KIND EVENT!

When: Saturday, March 5, 10am-4pm

Where: Saint Matthews U.M.C., 600 E. Florida St, Greensboro, NC

Register: Registration is limited -- contact us to REGISTER EARLY!

Contact: Carolyn Smith at 336-292-4178 // csmith@workingamerica.org